

ALRA Value for Money Statement

ALRA has always worked on delivering the best student experience and the maximising the benefits derived from its resources for ALRA students and graduates.

This statement is designed to provide students, staff and any other stakeholder with transparency about how ALRA generates income and that income is distributed.

In order to be fair and transparent, ALRA will annually publish this statement, with updated figures to reflect the current financial situation. ALRA will regularly seek students' views and input into this Statement as part of its student partnership approach.

How Resources and Income are used

The figures below relate to the academic year 2017-18.
